

Parent Input

(Parent-Teacher Interviews, Nov 6 – 7)

What does SAFE look like?

- Warm place to lay their head
- No running
- Acceptance
- Making responsible choices
- Calm
- Not sprinting around the school
- Being aware of your surroundings
- Awareness
- Wearing your helmet when you bike/scooter to school
- Playing nicely with friends
- Not feeling threatened
- Respectful and positive attitude
- Smiling and happy students helping each other out
- Maintaining personal space / being aware of your surroundings
- Standing up for your friends
- Not shoving or pushing on the playground
- Not bullying
- Ability to be yourself
- Use crosswalks & walk bikes/scooters on sidewalks
- Looking out for each other
- Kindness
- Not standing on chairs

What does SAFE sound like?

- Warning people of their surroundings (if unsafe)
- Quiet
- Being quiet in class
- No yelling or swearing
- Quiet in the halls
- Not yelling in the classroom

Parent Input

(Parent-Teacher Interviews, Nov 6 – 7)

What does RESPECTFUL sound like?

- Being quiet when asked
- Sounds of joy
- Using manners (please/thank you)
- Quietly listening to those who are talking
- Giving compliments
- Using words that are chosen carefully

What does RESPECTFUL look like?

- Actively listening
- Taking turns to talk
- Following expectations
- Not talking to your friends during class instruction
- Not talking over people
- Speaking in a kind manner
- No bullying
- Helping others
- Looking out for others
- Not being disruptive
- Raising your hand when you have something to say
- Using your manners
- Showing kindness to others
- Demonstrating patience and openness
- Being inclusive
- Putting others first
- Awareness and understanding of others' cultures, religions and beliefs
- Letting others be their authentic selves
- Laughing WITH others, not AT others

Parent Input

(Parent-Teacher Interviews, Nov 6 – 7)

What does RESPONSIBLE look like?

- Doing your part without being asked to do so
- Showing care
- Being on time
- Packing your own lunch
- Walking in the halls
- Completing your homework without being told to do so
- Being helpful to teachers
- Showing empathy
- Obeying the rules
- Showing up on time with materials
- Work then play
- Working hard and helping others
- Respecting people's boundaries
- Cleaning up after yourself
- Listen when spoken to
- Doing assignments on time
- Understanding instructions
- Studying when needed
- Following through with your commitments
- Picking up garbage
- Being a good student, classmate, and citizen

What does RESPONSIBLE sound like?

- Peacefulness, happiness, joy
- Saying sorry
- Demonstration of accountability
- Owning up to mistakes
- Saying sorry when needed

